

Official Statement Re: Boracay Island Closure

As approved by the President of the Philippines, Boracay Island will be officially closed for six (6) months starting April 26, 2018 for rehabilitation purposes. 7Stones Boracay Suites has been a supporter and implementer of environmental initiatives and practices; we are in support with the community and the government in the rehabilitation of the island, designed to put it back to its pristine world class condition.

In line with this, 7Stones Boracay Suites will officially be closed for tourist services starting April 26, 2018 until further notice.

To our valued guests and partners who have made booking reservations from April 26, 2018 onwards, you may contact us through any contact information indicated below. It is our desire to assist you with the modification of your booking/s. Rest assured that we will work out the best possible option for you.

Thank you for your continued support to 7Stones Boracay Suites and we look forward on having you soon.
